1. With the complete reports of [] #13 for [] Junior Officer Trainees in hand, it is gratifying to note that of the total of [] "superior" grades, [] or approximately eighty percent, were gained by members of the Program. Thirty percent of the "excellent" grades were made by this group. There was one "poor." Since the C/JOTP fared worse at the hands of [] et al, he can take consolation in the fact that there were others in the same leaky boat with him. 25X1

B. NORMAL ACTIVITIES

1. C/JOTP met with [] and five others of the Personnel Office to discuss the project originally undertaken by [] last May. Little headway was made, but at least the groundwork for an approach to the problem was set up. (Ref. Report #30, B.1.) 25X1

2. C/JOTP met with [] to make recommendations on candidates for the third running of JCD. 25X1

3. C/JOTP and [] briefed the A&E Staff on certain aspects of the JOT Program and pointed out areas in which more information about candidates would be helpful. Of especial significance in planning for handling cases of candidates who will be tested in the field is the need for as much evidence as possible for selecting those who are to be brought to Headquarters for pre-employment medical examinations and interviews. 25X1

4. Meetings were held with the following officials on the subjects indicated: [] assignment); []/SO (JCD Program); []/SR (training program); []/A&E (reporting results of JOT tests); and []/MPD (JOT/OCS arrangements). 25X1

5. [] 25X1

6. [] took the Language Aptitude Test on 9 August. 25X1
